

Development Summer Intern

About Us:

Camber Property Group has been making an impact in the affordable housing market in New York City for years, developing innovative projects and preserving much-needed affordable housing in communities across the five boroughs. The firm focuses on three primary business lines: acquisition and preservation of existing affordable housing assets, new construction of affordable and supportive housing, and new construction and acquisition of transitional housing. In 2021 alone, Camber completed 3 ground up new construction projects in Ridgewood, the South Bronx and Harlem, respectively, and completed the preservation and recapitalization of nearly 1,000 units of existing affordable housing.

Job Summary

Camber is looking for paid interns to work on a variety of development projects. Some assignments are exciting, some are less so, but all will give interns insight into the world of residential and mixed-use development. Internships will be for eight to ten weeks beginning May 2022 but can be flexible.

Duties and Responsibilities

Internships are open to graduate level students with an interest and applicable skill set in residential, commercial, and mixed-use development. Interns are expected to work independently and as part of a team. They must be proficient in Excel, organized, have an entrepreneurial mind set, and have relevant coursework. Specific duties will vary but will include tasks similar to these:

- Collecting due diligence materials
- Financial analysis of a project or property
- Coordination of meetings of project teams
- Creating presentations for various stakeholders
- Attending design and construction coordination meetings
- Zoning and feasibility analyses
- Assisting with responses to Requests for Proposals
- Site visits and market analyses

Strong quantitative skills are a must. Background or proficiency in financial underwriting is a plus. Most importantly, candidates must have a passion for the work we do.
