

Construction Management Intern

Job Summary

Camber Property Group LLC (Camber) is a small and growing real estate development firm. Its principals have extensive experience in the acquisition and development of affordable, market rate, and mixed-income properties in NYC. For more information, visit www.camberpg.com.

Camber is looking for paid interns to work on a variety of construction management projects under the guidance of the Construction Management team. Internships are open to undergraduate and graduate level students with interest in construction or real estate with a particular focus on affordable housing properties. Internships will last 10 to 12 weeks beginning June 1, 2022. There is a potential to extend the internship for the fall 2022 & spring 2023 semesters.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Interns are expected to support the entire Construction Management team in a variety of projects and must be comfortable working independently and as a part of a team. They should be proficient in Excel and have a general understanding of construction or residential real estate or have completed relevant coursework. Specific duties will vary, but potential tasks will include:

- Support Construction Management team members in managing field operations of existing portfolio assets
- Assist during site inspections which can include taking photographs, assessing existing conditions, and creating written project documents
- Support Construction Management team in tracking construction progress, completing the permitting process, and overseeing contractors, consultants, and vendors
- Collaborate with property managers to track DOB, ECB, FDNY, and HPD violations
- Support in responding to work delays, emergencies, and other problems as needed
- Assist in preparing and managing leveling sheets for 3rd party consultants and subcontractors
- Assist in the management of the project-based accounting process – including reviewing and understanding requisitions and how to prepare project draws
- Assist in monitoring project scope for changes affecting budget and/or schedule
- Assist in conducting due diligence for new and prospective acquisitions
- Attend and record minutes of project meetings
